Russian Hair Definitions

100% Remy: All strands are aligned with roots at the top of the bundle and cuticles are running in the same direction.

100% Single drawn: No short hairs have been removed. The bundles are contain lengths from 3" tapering down to finished length.

50% Single drawn: 50% of the short hairs have been drawn out leaving fuller thicker ends (10" length will contain short hairs starting from 5")

75% Single drawn: Shorter length hairs start at 75% of the finished length (10" length will contain short hairs starting from 7.5")

Braids and/or Ponytails: Unfinished bundles that have been cleaned, tangle tested but the roots are not neatly aligned

Finished Bundles: Each bundle has been drawn with roots aligned and ends trimmed.

Mixed Colors: Russian virgin hair colors are commonly dark blonds and light browns. There are some darker browns and some lighter blonds as well as some reds.

Various Colors: The dyed stock bundles come in a range of colors from ash colors suitable for men's hairpieces to natural browns and blonds closely matching common color ring shades.

Mixed Textures: Russian hair is commonly slight wave with some thicker textured hair in body wave textures.

Slight Wave: Usually Russian hair selected for bleaching, cuticle processing and/or dyeing is straight to slight wave in texture.
